VISA and letter of attestation

Participants are strongly advised to make sure they fulfil all legal requirements to enter Australia. Besides a valid passport, an entry visa may also be required.

It is highly recommended to start the process a minimum of 2 ½ months prior to your arrival in Australia. Please contact your nearest Australian consulate or embassy in your country of residence for further information.

Invitation letters to assist in visa formalities will be sent to people who request it in order to help you obtain the visa. It must be understood that such letter does not imply any financial support or hosting arrangement from IOF, nor a guarantee of a visa being issued. The attestation letter to assist in visa formalities will only be sent on request by e-mail and only to participants who have paid their registration fees in full.

Should you wish to receive a letter, please note that your request must be registered as early as possible by sending an email to registration@iof-regional.org.

Liability and Insurance

The Conference organizer International Osteoporosis Foundation (IOF), the Conference Venue (International Convention Center, Sydney), its official appointed agency for Registrations and the Conference Secretariat (HUMACOM SPRL) and any suppliers, representatives or agents linked to the organization of the Congress shall not be held liable by any person for any injury, damage, theft, loss, medical problem or inconvenience which may be suffered by any person while traveling to or from, or during such person's presence in Australia in connection with this Conference. Participants are advised to purchase their own insurance against any such occurrences.

Cancellation or Modification of the Congress due to Force Majeure

In case of force majeure, the Conference organizer have the right to alter or cancel the Congress without prior notice, however a notice of the occurrence shall be given by IOF as soon as reasonably possible. Force majeure shall mean any circumstance beyond the reasonable control of IOF which prevents or impedes the holding of the Conference, including, but not limited to, government action, war or hostilities, riot or civil commotion, plague or other epidemic such as SARS, bird flu, etc., earthquake, flood, hurricane, cyclone, fire or other natural physical disaster, explosion, accident or breakdown, strike, lack of the usual means of transportation or terrorism or due to events which are not attributable to wrongful intent or gross negligence of the IOF. IOF shall not be liable for any direct or indirect, incidental or consequential damages, losses, expenditures or any other inconveniences or costs caused by such modification or cancellation of the Conference. Furthermore, registration fees will not be reimbursed by IOF.

Disclaimer

All reasonable endeavours will be made to hold the Conference and to present its programme as scheduled under circumstances which assure the comfort and safety of all participants. However, the IOF reserves the right to modify the programme, unilaterally and without notice. Neither IOF nor their officers, directors, employees, representatives or agents, shall be held liable by any person as a result of the cancellation of the Conference or any of the arrangements, programmes or plans connected therewith, or for any injury, damage or inconvenience which may be suffered by any person while traveling to or from, or during such person's presence in Australia in connection with this Conference. Participants are advised to purchase their own insurance against any such occurrences.

Any litigation stemming from the above contract will be tried in Belgium where the Belgian law is exclusively applicable.

I hereby accept the above registration conditions of the Congress and agree for the payment corresponding to my requests
